Beverly Crumley
DISTRICT CLERK
HAYS COUNTY, TEXAS

STANDING ORDER ON COURT MANDATED PARENTING COURSE

Pursuant to the inherent powers of the District Courts and the County Courts-at-Law to provide for the speedy, efficient and inexpensive resolution of disputes, it is hereby ordered:

1. In every divorce action filed on or after March 1st, 2001 in Hays County, Texas involving children under the age of 18, all parties shall attend a court approved parenting class. See Exhibit "A" for a complete list of approved courses.
2. The course shall be attended within sixty (60) days of service of the original petition upon the original respondent.
3. No final hearing will be had without certificate of attendance attached to setting request.
4. Upon a party's failure to attend the seminar pursuant to this rule, the assigned judge may take appropriate action, including but not limited to actions for contempt.
5. For good cause shown, the assigned judge may waive the attendance requirement in individual cases.
6. The Hays County District Clerk shall furnish this Order upon all filed divorce cases.

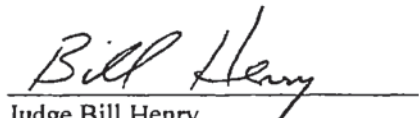

SO ORDERED THIS 26 DAY OF April, 2018.
